Prelude, Choral, Symphony V. Widor

Solemn Procession, 148

Introit Plainsong

Antiphon.— Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto Thee, Alleluia: my heart hath talked of Thee, Seek ye My face. Thy face, Lord, will I seek. O hide not Thou Thy face from me. Alleluia.

Psalm — The Lord is my Light and my Salvation: whom then shall I fear?

Gloria.— Repeat Antiphon

Communion Service, in C Martin

(Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, page 141)

Sequence, Hymn 147

Sermon by the Rector

Anthem, Gounod

UNFOLD, ye portals everlasting,
With welcome to receive Him ascending on high.
Behold the King of Glory! He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the heavenly mansions hasting.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.
But Who is He, the King of Glory?
He Who death overcame, the Lord mighty in battle.
But Who is He, the King of Glory?
Of Hosts He is the Lord; of angels and of powers:
The King of Glory is the King of the saints.
Unfold, ye portals everlasting!

Recessional, Hymn 304

Postlude, Toccata, Symphony V. Widor

Solemn Evensong, 7.30 p.m.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in E flat West

Hymn 149

Sermon by Fr. Whitehead

Anthem, Stainer

GRIEVE not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice.

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God, for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you.

Solemn Procession, Hymn 148

Recessional, Hymn 316

Postlude, Allegro vivace, Symphony V. Widor

"Ourselves Your Servants for Jesus' Sake."

I hope to preach this morning on "Jesus Omnipotent." Fr. Whitehead will be evening Preacher.

To-morrow I go to New York to attend a meeting of the Commission on Relations with the Eastern Orthodox and Old Catholic Churches.

My Friday evening lecture will be on "Capital Punishment."

Thursday, at 10.30 A. M., the annual service for the Presentation of the W. A. United Thank Offering will be held in the Cathedral, the Preacher being the Rev. H. K. Sherrill of Longwood.

This comes from the Bishop:

"Shall we recognize Memorial Day this year by the establishment of a Massachusetts Memorial Pew in the beautiful Church of the Holy Trinity in Paris, France?

"During the war this Church was a spiritual centre for thousands of American soldiers and sailors, many of whom worshipping here went to the front never to return. In this Church have been held great memorial services by the leaders of the French, English, and American armies. Here are the battle cloisters and other memorials of dignity and beauty.

"Let us endow a Massachusetts Pew in memory of the Massachusetts men and boys who fell, and in gratitude for those who returned. Upon this pew will be the Massachusetts coat of arms, and aloft will hang the gold standard flag of the Commonwealth. In it our children and our children's children who pass through Paris may worship. Other States will have their pews.

"The endowment, of which a part is pledged, is $7,500. This is not a call for help, but the suggestion of an opportunity. Let no one give who is not glad to give. Let those of us, however, who really want to have a part in this beautiful memorial at this Memorial time put our gift into the envelope, and follow the directions thereon printed."

Next Sunday is Whitsunday, or Pentecost, the Birthday of the Holy Catholic Church; and the services will be appropriate to one of the chief feasts of the Christian year. I hope you all will be able to receive the Blessed Sacrament on that day.

Pray for the reunion of Christendom on the Pentecostal plan; for several sick men of the congregation; for a woman about to undergo a serious surgical operation; for a self-willed child; for the reunion of a divided family; for the overthrow of anarchy in Russia; for a blessing on the National Catholic Movement in Czecho-Slovakia; and for the cause of Missions everywhere.

William Harman van Allen.

The Parish Treasurer reports $4,500.00 received towards the Church's Call apportionment of $15,184. This sum comes from less than 300 pledged weekly or monthly givers, and from a few persons who gave early in the year for the whole year. Less than 300 in this large Parish have as yet responded to the call! It is not too late to pledge now; or special offerings may be made.
